During the period of notice, such member shall not be eligible to vote or to incur fresh liabilities with the Society.
4.18	A member who contravenes any of the provisions of the Act, the Rules or the By-laws or acts in any way detrimental to the interests of the Society may be expelled by the COM, provided that he is given a reasonable opportunity to show cause as to why he should not be expelled. An expelled member may appeal in writing to the Society – (a) at least 21 clear days before the next general meeting and the appeal against the expulsion shall be heard at the next general

	meeting, which may reverse the decision of the COM if not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting at the meeting so decide; or (b) at least 21 clear days before the following general meeting and the appeal against the expulsion shall be heard at the following general meeting, which may reverse the decision of the COM if not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting at the meeting so decide.
5	GENERAL MEETING
5.1	The supreme authority of the Society shall be vested in the general meeting of members.
5.2	There shall be 2 types of general meetings, Annual General Meeting and Extra-Ordinary General Meeting.
5.3	An Annual General Meeting shall be convened by the COM and shall be held as soon as practicable but not later than 6 months after the end of the financial year, unless the approval of the Registrar has, within the said period of 6 months, been obtained to extend that period.
5.4	An Extra-Ordinary General Meeting shall be convened by the COM whenever it thinks fit, or on receipt of a requisition for such a meeting signed by at least 20% or 60 of the members (or the delegates) of the Society, whichever is the less, stating the objects of the meeting.
5.5	If the COM fails to convene a meeting in accordance with By-law 5.4 within one month after receiving the requisition for the meeting, the members making the requisition shall have power to convene the meeting themselves by notice to all members of the Society stating the objects of the meeting and the fact that the COM has failed to convene the meeting.
5.6	The Registrar or his representative may at any time convene a Special General Meeting and may also direct what matters shall be discussed at the meeting.
5.7	Notice of every general meeting shall be sent to each member (or delegate) entitled to attend the meeting at least 15 clear days prior to the date of the general meeting. The notice shall state the matters for discussions and the resolutions to be proposed and no other subject shall be discussed without the consent of the majority of the members present and voting at such general meeting.
5.8	A copy of each of the following documents must be made available to every member (and/or to every delegate) entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting, at least 15 clear days before the meeting –

	(a) the Society's annual report, audited financial statements and audit report mentioned in section 34(1) of the Act, including every document required under the Act to be attached to those reports and statements; and
	(b) such other document as the Registrar thinks necessary and directs to be made available.
5.9	The functions of the Annual General Meeting shall be –
	(a) to confirm the minutes of the last Annual General Meeting and any other intervening general meeting;
	(b) to consider the Auditor's report, the report of the COM and any report made by the Registrar or his representative;
	(c) to approve the financial statements;
	(d) to consider and resolve the manner in which any available net surplus shall be distributed or invested subject to the provisions of the Act and the By-laws;
	(e) to consider and adopt any amendments to the By-laws;
	(f) to elect or remove members of the COM;
	(g) to elect internal auditors;
	(h) to appoint External Auditors;
	(i) to consider and authorise the payment of allowance or honorarium and provision of other benefits subject to By-law 6.21;
	(j) to consider and determine the maximum amount the Society may borrow, subject to the provisions of the Act and the By-laws;
	(k) to write off bad debts; and
	(l) to transact any other general business of the Society of which due notice has been given to the members.
5.10	No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members (or delegates) is present. The quorum necessary for such transaction shall be 20% or 30 of all members (or delegates) qualified to vote, whichever is less.
5.11	If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a general meeting, the members (or delegates) present shall form a quorum, except that a general meeting with such reduced quorum shall not have the power to amend the By-laws and any resolution passed at the meeting shall not be valid unless it is passed with a majority of two-thirds of the members (or delegates) present.

5.12	Each individual Ordinary member shall have only one vote, irrespective of the number of shares he holds and that vote shall be exercised in person and not by proxy.
5.13	Each institutional member shall be represented by one voting delegate, who shall have at his disposal one vote each, irrespective of the number of shares held by the institutional member he represents and that vote shall be exercised in person and not by proxy. The institutional members shall notify the secretary of the names of the delegates who are authorised to attend general meetings on their behalf.
5.14	Except as otherwise provided in the Act or in these By-laws, a question referred to the members (or delegates) present at a general meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the motion shall be held to be lost. The chairman shall have no casting vote. In the case of election or removal of officers, voting shall be by secret ballot.
5.15	Where it is provided in the Act or in the By-laws that a resolution shall be passed by not less than a prescribed majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting, the resolution shall be deemed to be passed if not less than the prescribed majority of the total number of votes are cast in favour of the resolution.
5.16	In the case of amendment of the By-laws, a resolution to amend the By-laws shall be passed either –
	(a) by not less than three-quarters of the total number of votes at the disposal of the members present and voting at a general meeting duly summoned; or
	(b) if a referendum is held, by not less than three quarters of the votes returned, provided that the voting papers have been sent to all members and that the number of returned votes is not less than one-third of the total membership or 500, whichever is the less, and the returned votes are examined and counted under the supervision of the Registrar.
5.17	No By-law or amendment to a By-law of the Society shall be valid until it has been registered by the Registrar.
5.18	Subject to By-law 5.19, the By-laws and any amendment to the By-laws of the Society shall, when registered, bind the Society and the members thereof to the same extent as if they were signed by each member and contained covenants on the part of each member for himself and his personal representatives to observe all the provisions of the By-laws.

5.19	A member of the Society shall not, without his consent in writing having been first obtained, be bound by any amendment of the By-laws registered after he became a member, if and so far as that amendment –
	(a) requires him to take or to subscribe for more shares than the number held by him at the date of registration of the amendment, or to pay upon the shares so held any sum exceeding the amount unpaid upon him at that date;
	(b) increases (in any other way) his liability to contribute to the share capital of the Society;
	(c) will cause or require any shares of that member (being an institutional member) to be converted into permanent shares.
5.20	Minutes of the general meeting shall be endorsed by the COM within 60 days after the date on which that general meeting is held.
5.21	After the minutes of the general meeting have been considered and confirmed at an Annual General Meeting, the COM shall cause those minutes to be entered in the minute book within 30 days after the date on which the Annual General Meeting is held.
5.22	Minutes of the general meeting shall contain –
	(a) the number of members (and/or delegates) present at the meeting;
	(b) the name of the chairman who presided;
	(c) the time the meeting commenced and ended; and
	(d) all resolutions and decisions made at the meeting.
5.23	The minutes of each meeting shall be read or shall be taken as read if previously circulated at the next meeting and shall, if confirmed or after amendment, be signed by the chairman of that meeting and the secretary, and when so signed shall be evidence of anything contained therein.
6	COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT
6.1	The control of the affairs of the Society shall be entrusted to a COM consisting of not less than 5 and not more than 30 individuals (each of whom need not be a member of the Society).
6.2	The nomination of candidates to the COM must be made on the nomination form prescribed by the Society, which shall be available to candidates at the Society's office or on its website. The completed nomination form must be signed by the candidate, his proposer and seconder. The proposer and

	seconder must be members of the Society. The completed form must be submitted to the Society on or before the deadline stipulated by the Society.
6.3	All members of the COM shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Society for a term of two years and shall hold office from the date of such Annual General Meeting. The Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and other officers shall be directly elected by members at the general meeting and may be eligible for re-election for a maximum of two terms. Retiring members of the COM shall be eligible for re-election unless otherwise restricted in the Act, Rules or By-laws.
6.4	A motion for the election of 2 or more individuals as members of the COM by a single resolution at a general meeting shall not be made unless a resolution that it shall be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.
6.5	A resolution passed in pursuance of a motion made in contravention of By-law 6.4 shall be void, whether or not its being so moved was objected to at the time.
6.6	Where a resolution pursuant to a motion made in contravention of By-law 6.4 is passed, no provision for the automatic re-election of retiring members of the COM in default of another election shall apply.
6.7	A motion for approving an individual's election, or for nominating an individual for election, must be treated as a motion for the individual's election.
6.8	If, during the term of office of the COM, a vacancy occurs in the COM, the COM may, and if the number of members falls below 5, shall, co-opt an individual (who need not be a member of the Society) to serve on the COM until the next general meeting of the Society.
6.9	The COM may appoint, at any time and whether or not there is any vacancy in the COM, up to 2 individuals (each of whom need not be a member of the Society) to serve in the COM until the next general meeting of the Society. The appointment must be approved by a majority of all of the existing members of the COM.
6.10	An individual is not eligible for membership of the COM or remain a member of the COM –
	(a) if he is under 18 years of age;
	(b) if he is not (i) a citizen of Singapore; or (ii) subject to section 60(2) of the Act, resident in Singapore,

	except with the approval of the Registrar;
	(c) if he is an undischarged bankrupt (whether he was adjudicated bankrupt by a Singapore court or a foreign court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy);
	(d) if he has been convicted of an offence under the Act;
	(e) if he has been dismissed as an employee of a co-operative society;
	(f) except with the Registrar's written approval, if he has previously been removed by the Registrar from the COM of any society, or suspended by the Registrar, under section 94(1) or 94A(1) of the Act;
	(g) if he becomes ineligible under any of the By-laws; or
6.11	Where an individual has been convicted, whether in Singapore or elsewhere, of any offence (not being an offence under this Act) involving fraud or dishonesty, he shall not be eligible to be or remain a member of the COM for the following periods except with the written approval of the Registrar -
	(a) where he has been sentenced to imprisonment in respect of the offence, for a period commencing from the date of his conviction until 5 years after his release from prison; or
	(b) where he has not been sentenced to imprisonment in respect of the offence, for a period of 5 years commencing from the date of his conviction or such shorter period with the leave of the High Court.
6.12	The COM shall suspend a member of the COM from being a member of the COM, if any proceedings are instituted against the member of the COM in respect of any offence involving fraud or dishonesty.
6.13	A member of the COM shall cease to hold office if –
	(a) he becomes ineligible for membership of the COM in accordance with By-law 6.10;
	(b) he passes away;
	(c) he becomes legally or mentally unsound;
	(d) he gives notice of resignation to the COM;
	(e) he is removed by a general meeting; or
	(f) he fails to be present at three consecutive meetings of the COM without satisfactory reasons acceptable to the COM.

6.14	A member of the COM, who resigns under By-law 6.13(d) shall not be eligible for election to the COM until after an interval of not less than one year.
6.15	A member of the COM who ceases to be a member under By-law 6.13(e) or (f) shall not be eligible for election until after an interval of not less than 2 years.
6.16	The COM shall have power to appoint committees or sub-committees from among themselves or the employees or members of the Society to be in charge of the daily efficient functioning of the Society or for any other purposes, which it may deem fit.
6.17	The COM shall represent the Society before all competent public authorities and in all dealings and transactions with third persons, with power to institute or defend suits brought in the name of or against the Society and, in general, direct and supervise the business and property of the Society and shall exercise all the necessary powers to ensure the full and proper administration and management of the affairs of the Society, except those powers reserved for the general meeting of members and subject to any restrictions duly laid down in a general meeting or in the By-laws.
6.18	Without limiting the generality of by By-law 6.17, the duties and powers of the COM are –
	(a) to consider and approve or reject applications for membership of the Society;
	(b) to consider and approve or reject applications for additional shares in the Society;
	(c) to call for and regularly examine reports from committees or sub-committees or officers or employees which will disclose the true position of the Society, its operations and financial conditions;
	(d) to appoint committees or sub-committees;
	(e) to keep members informed of the progress of the Society and encourage interest and a sense of ownership on the part of the members;
	(f) to present to the Annual General Meeting of the Society an annual report on the activities of the Society during the preceding financial year, together with the audited financial statements of the Society, the auditor’s report for the year and such other documents as the Registrar may direct;
	(g) to prepare and present to the Annual General Meeting of the Society a proposal for the distribution of any net surplus accrued during the preceding financial year, in accordance with the Act and the By-laws;

	(h) to make a report to the Annual General Meeting of the work of the COM during the preceding financial year with such recommendations as they deem necessary to maintain or improve the service provided by the Society to members;
	(i) to consider and take immediate action on matters reported by the Registrar or the auditor;
	(j) to exercise any or all the powers conferred in these By-laws;
	(k) to sanction additional expenditure up to a maximum, as may be prescribed by members at a general meeting, in excess of the approved budget for any one year; and
	(l) to carry on the business of the Society generally and to frame rules for the conduct of such business as may be necessary.
6.19	A full and correct record shall be kept of all proceedings of the COM in carrying out its duties, and the records shall be available for inspection by the Registrar and by the auditor.
6.20	The COM may appoint, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, a chief executive officer to administer and manage the affairs of the Society and may employ such other persons as it considers necessary to assist the chief executive officer in the discharge of his duties. Where a full-time chief executive officer is appointed, all or any of the duties of the secretary or treasurer, or both may be delegated to such chief executive officer. Where all duties of the secretary or treasurer, or both are so delegated, the Society may operate without electing a secretary or treasurer, or both.
6.21	The COM shall meet as often as the business of the Society may require and in any case not less frequently than once in every three months. Notice of every meeting of the COM shall be sent to each member of the COM at least 7 clear days prior to the date of the meeting.
6.22	The quorum for a meeting of the COM shall be half of the number of its members. Decisions shall be taken on a simple majority of votes. The chairman shall have no casting vote. No member of the COM shall vote on any matter in which he is individually interested.
6.23	Minutes of COM meetings shall be recorded by the secretary in the minute book within 60 days after the date on which the meeting is held and shall include –
	(a) the number and names of those present;
	(b) the name of the chairman of the meeting; and

	(c) a brief record of business done and decisions taken including whether each decision was taken unanimously or by a majority.
6.24	In the conduct of the affairs of the Society, a member of the COM shall at all times act honestly and use reasonable diligence in the discharge of the duties of his office.
6.25	A member of the COM who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or proposed transaction with the Society shall as soon as practicable after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge declare the nature and extent of his interest at a meeting of the COM.
6.26	A member of the COM who holds any office or possesses any property whereby, whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duties or interests as a member of the COM shall declare at a meeting of the COM the fact and nature, character and extent of the conflict. The declaration shall be made –
	(a) after he becomes a member of the COM; or
	(b) if he is already a member of the COM, then after he commenced to hold office or to possess the property, as the case requires.
6.27	The secretary shall record every declaration made pursuant to By-laws 6.25 and 6.26 in the minutes of the meeting at which the declaration was made.
6.28	Where the COM has appointed a person as a chief executive officer or a committee or sub-committee to administer and manage the affairs of the Society, such appointment shall not absolve the COM from its responsibility for the proper direction of the affairs of the Society.
6.29	A member of the COM, who is not an employee of the Society, may receive an honorarium or allowance (but not both) and other benefits from the Society, provided that the payment of such honorarium or allowance and the provision of any such benefits have been authorised by a resolution to that effect passed by a general meeting of the Society.
6.30	The duties of the chairman shall include the following –
	(a) To provide leadership to the COM as to how its functions and responsibilities should be carried out;
	(b) to preside at all general meetings of the Society and all meetings of the COM;
	(c) to exercise general supervision over the officers and employees of the Society;

	(d) to represent the Society for any purposes as the COM may decide;
	(e) to certify or sign appropriate documents, returns and statements required under the Act, the Rules, the By-laws or any direction of the COM; and
	(f) to perform such other duties specified in these By-laws or entrusted to him by the COM.
6.31	In the absence of the chairman, his duties shall be carried out by the vice-chairman or in the absence of both the chairman and the vice-chairman, by any other person elected by a majority of those present at that meeting.
6.32	The duties of the secretary shall include the following –
	(a) to maintain, correctly and up-to-date, all the records, papers and registers of the Society;
	(b) to keep an inventory of the property belonging to the Society;
	(c) to sign on behalf of the COM and conduct its correspondence;
	(d) to summon and attend the general meetings and meetings of the COM and to record the proceedings of such meetings in a minutes book;
	(e) to have custody of the common seal of the Society;
	(f) to submit all minutes of meetings and such information, returns and statements required under the Act or called for by the Registrar within the prescribed period; and
	(g) to conduct the ordinary business of the Society and perform all the duties entrusted to him by the COM or specified in these By-laws.
6.33	The duties of the treasurer shall include the following –
